The Silver Lining Theatre Company in association with THEATRE ALIVE!
presents:

IRANIAN PLAY WORLD PREMIERE The Masculine Law by Ghazi Rabihavi

A ruthless expose with sparks of humour, Ghazi Rabihavi's new play examines the discrimination against women in Iran through a series of mini plays set within a wide social panorama. Rooted in the everyday lives of women as impacted by the country's legal system, it is a political manifesto based upon the current woman's rights movement and the One Million Signature Campaign.

Based upon real stories of injustice, the woman's struggle for equality is a reminder to all those who have come to take their freedom for granted.
